Dear Matt:

As you are about to turn over your duties as Assistant Director for Personnel to [REDACTED] and in the absence of Mr. Wolf, I should like to express my sincere appreciation for the effective job you have done in that capacity since you took over from [REDACTED] last April.

I know that doing this job, in addition to your duties as Director of Training, has been a heavy load. You not only have performed in a commendable manner, but your devotion to duty and your outstanding spirit of cooperation have been especially praiseworthy. It has been a real personal pleasure for me to have been associated with you in this capacity during this time.

Sincerely,

L. K. White
Acting Deputy Director
(Administration)
